Agreement

In marriage, you need to have many negotiations with your partner.

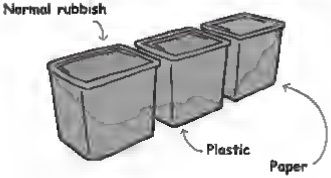
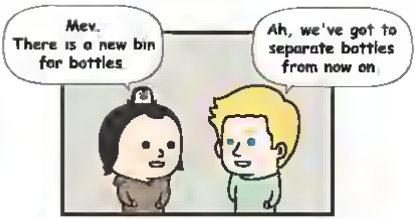
As we all have different personalities, interests, rules in life and we constantly have to find right balance to live together under one roof.

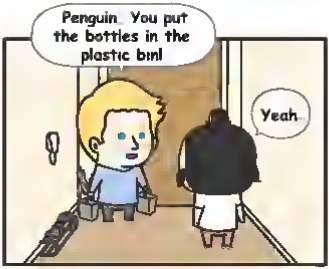


We have 3 bins.
We separate the rubbish very well
so there is no problem using them.

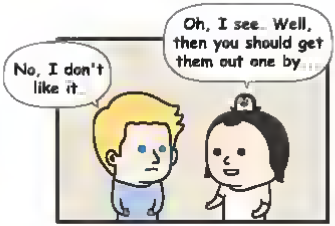


But since there was new bin,
we faced a problem.

I started to put glass bottles in the plastic bin.

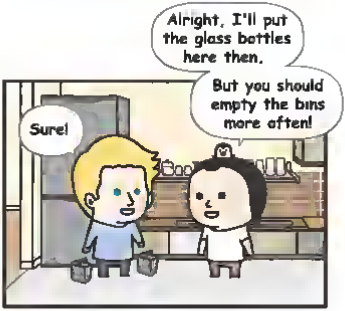


Mev didn't like my system.



No, I don't like it..
Oh, I see.. Well, then you should get them out one by...

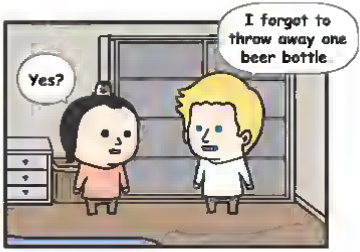
Let's collect them separately.. Anyway
I go out to throw the rubbish away
Well, that's true.



We negotiated with no problem.

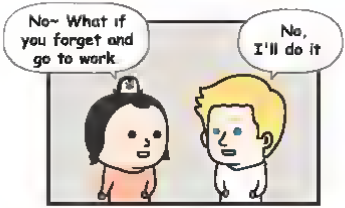
Time flew by. It was a day before some guests were visiting us, and we were cleaning the flat.

When the cleaning was nearly finished.

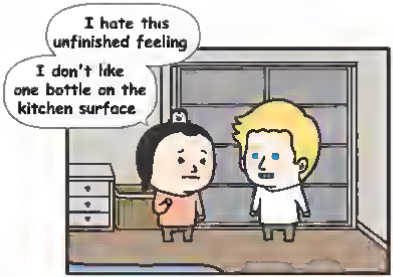


Mev told me.

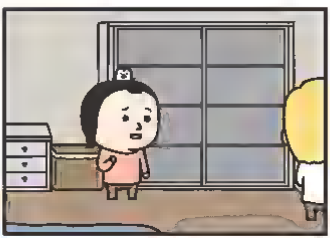
Well, then go and throw it away
Umm.. I'll do it tomorrow morning

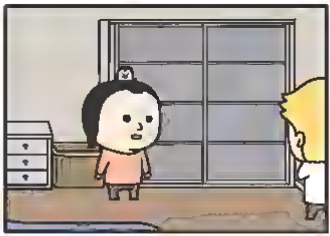


No~ What if you forget and go to work
No, I'll do it



I hate this unfinished feeling
I don't like one bottle on the kitchen surface





I'll cuddle it tonight then.

Deal.
